

7th April

GCSE Drama Exam Showcase

Main Hall 4.30pm

Children putting on a Nativity with disastrous consequences. Casanova with some bad advice for Romeo. A group of boys trying to prepare for Oxford entrance exams with two very different teachers. Strong female Shakespearean characters gradually going mad. Two tramps waiting for something to happen, and four bouncers taking you on a tour of the local nightclub.

GCSE students will be performing extracts from the above plays for their GCSE exam.

Extracts last between 15—20 minutes. So even if you can't make the whole evening, you are very welcome to come between performances.

Tickets Free but please collect in advance from v.husband@dcsch.co.uk

16 May

Y13 A Level Performance Studies Exam Showcase

Drama Studio 5pm

Cabaret brings 1931 Berlin to life. Outside on the street, the Nazi party is beginning to grow into a brutal political force, whilst inside at the Kit Kat Klub, starry eyed Sally Bowles and an impish Master of Ceremonies sound the call for decadent fun. Into this heady world arrives English language teacher Brian Roberts who falls for Sally's charm, and soon the two of them find themselves embroiled in the turmoil and decadence of the era.

Students will be performing extracts from the above. This will be followed by a student devised performance incorporating drama, music & movement.

Berlin 1961—1989 A city Divided?

This devised performance will explore the divide between the two sides, looking at both the physical and the mental barriers.

Tickets Free but please collect in advance.

Wed 29 June

Y12 Performing Arts Exam Performance

Main Hall 6.45pm

Meet Carol, Mel, Nicky, Tiffany & Adele, the waitresses of Shakers—the hot cocktail bar!

These girls are overworked, underpaid and rushed off their feet, but still providing service with a smile! You are invited to witness, through the eyes of these lovely ladies, the truth of what's really going on when the drinks are flowing, the tunes are pumping and the glitter balls are sparkling.

This will be a student directed performance of John Godber & Jane Thornton's classic play. They will be performing the whole play.

Running Time approx. 1hr 10mins. There will be no interval, but refreshments will be available to purchase from 6pm

Tickets £3 adults / £1.50 concessions

Wed 6 July

KS3 Performance of Othello as part of Rotherham Children's Festival

Magna 7pm

Othello, the Moor and Commander of the Venetian army, promotes Cassio to Lieutenant, enraging Iago who plots revenge. Iago has Cassio dismissed and then pretends to help him by asking Othello's new wife, Desdemona, to plead Cassio's case with Othello. Meanwhile Iago poisons Othello's mind against Desdemona, convincing him she has been unfaithful with Cassio. Iago's wife Emilia steals Desdemona's handkerchief and Iago drops it in Cassio's quarters. Seeing Cassio with the handkerchief is final proof for Othello and overcome by jealousy he smothers her with a pillow. Upon finding Desdemona, Emilia admits the truth. Iago, furious with her for confessing, stabs his wife and is arrested. Unable to live with his tragic mistake, Othello takes his own life.

KS3 Drama club will be working with other schools and drama practitioners to rehearse and stage a 30 minute version of Othello, which will be performed at the spectacular venue of Magna as part of Inspire Rotherham and the Children's Festival.
